Gospel Reading

Matthew 3:13-17

Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. John would have prevented him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?" But Jesus answered him, "Let it be so now, for it is proper for us in this way to fulfill all righteousness." Then he consented. And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw God's Spirit descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from the heavens said, "This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased."

The Gospel of our Lord.
Praise be to Christ.

Litany for Remembering Our Baptism

For the baptism with water, a symbol of our new life,

We give thanks.

For baptism of your spirit, the gift of your presence in and among us,

We give thanks.

We accept these gifts as a sign of your love and regard,

As a sign of you being with us.

As symbols of your promise to us:

You cleanse, fill, and renew us.

With living water

We are washed and filled.

With holy spirit

We are washed and filled.

You come to us with the beauty and gentleness of a dove:

We are your children, in whom you are pleased.

And you come to us with the intensity of a fire:

We are your servants, to do your work in the world.

Fill us anew each day

With water and fire.

Teach us to walk as New Creation,

New creatures, children of God:

Buried with Christ in death

Raised to newness of life. Amen.

Winter Sermon Series: Un-Muddying the Water: On Being Baptist

Many First Baptist folx feel kind of embarrassed to wear the label “Baptist” due to the actions of our siblings in Christ, the Southern Baptist. Yet, for good or ill, the stream in which our church swims is Baptist. Our congregation was founded in 1823, and although we were not initially Baptist, the word “baptist” is mentioned as early as 1824 in our records. That is our tradition. Therefore, as we move toward our 200th year, we are thinking about what is good and worthy about our faith tradition and what we do want to hold onto as we move forward into the future. Join us as we kick off a winter sermon series: Un-Muddying the Water: On Being Baptist.

First Baptist Welcomes Former Pastor John Baker

Leading up to our 200th anniversary, First Baptist is welcoming back former pastors to the pulpit. On Sunday, February 19, we are elated to welcome John Baker, preaching during both worship services. If you are new to First Baptist, John Baker was pastor of First Baptist from 1997-2010.

“The Many” in Concert and Leading in Worship

As part of our 200th Anniversary Celebration, First Baptist is thrilled to host the musical group The Many! Drawing on indie pop and gospel influences, The Many is an intentionally diverse group of musicians committed to honest expressions of faith, peacemaking, economic and racial justice, and LGBTQ+ inclusion. The Many will perform on Saturday, February 25, at 5pm in the First Baptist Church Sanctuary. The ensemble will also provide music and lead worship at 11:15am on Sunday, February 26. Both events are free to attend and open to the public.
