Call to Worship (responsive)

Based on Psalm 100

Leader: Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth.

Group 1: Worship the Lord with gladness!

Group 2: Come into God's presence with singing!

Leader: Know this! The Lord is God.

Group 1: Know this! We belong to the Lord who made us.

Group 2: Know this! We are God's people, and the sheep of God's pasture.

Leader: So, enter God's gates with thanksgiving,

Group 1: Come into the holy courts with praise.

Group 2: Give thanks to God and bless God's holy name.

Leader: For the Lord is good;

Group 1: God's steadfast love endures forever,

Group 2: God's faithfulness is for all generations.

Hymn of Thanksgiving

Now Thank We All Our God

1. Now thank we all our God with heart and hands and voices,
2. O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us,
3. All praise and thanks to God the Father now be given,

who wondrous things hath done, in whom his world rejoices;
with ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us;
the Son, and him who reigns with them in highest heaven,

who, from our mother's arms, hath blessed us on our way
and keep us in his grace and guide us when perplexed,
the one eternal God whom earth and heaven adore;

with countless gifts of love, and still is ours to-day.
and free us from all ills in this world and the next.
for thus it was, is now, and shall be ever-more.

Scripture Reading

Maizie DuCoulombier

Matthew 6:19-21, 24-34

“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal; but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

“No one can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.

“Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, ‘What will we eat?’ or ‘What will we drink?’ or ‘What will we wear?’ For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

“So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring worries of its own. Today’s trouble is enough for today.

Litany of Thanks

God, source of all life,
 the northern autumn is all around us now, beautiful in scarlet and gold.
 We have heard the Spirit of God in the rustling leaves and the rush of water,
 and we are so grateful for a generous harvest,
 for seeds of many kinds, sown and multiplied,
 for the abundance we enjoy.

Bless the Lord, my soul, and bless God's ho-ly name.

Bless the Lord, my soul, who leads me in-to life.

Creator God,
 we are so grateful for the creation which nourishes
 and sustains all that lives.
 Renew in us the sense of its value
 that we may not take its riches for granted.

New Staff Member

Transforming God,
We know that you are the source of all life's blessings,
and for that we give you thanks.
Help us to open our hands and hearts that we may scatter with hope and generosity
the seeds of justice, peace and joy.
So may the fruits of our harvest be for the sharing and the blessing of your love. Amen.
