† Call to Worship (responsive)

This day is not like any other day.

Today we sing “Alleluia!”

This day is not like any other day.

Today we are full to the brim.

This day is not like any other day.

Today the stone was rolled away.

Today we know—death does not win.

The grave has been overtaken by life.

The new kin-dom has begun.

The way of love is victorious.

This day is not like any other day.

Alleluia!

Christ is Risen

He is Risen, Indeed!

†Opening Hymn 234

†Passing the Peace of Christ

Children's Moment - Raising the Alleluia

†Hymn of Easter 254

Alleluia, Alleluia! Hearts to Heaven

Scripture Reading

Greg Horstmeier

Luke 24:1-12

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body. While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, “Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.” Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

The Gospel of our Lord.
Praise be to Christ.

Message

Pastor Carol McEntyre

Anthem

Trinity Te Deum

by Eriks Esenvalds

*We praise thee O God;
we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship, worship thee, the Father everlasting.
To thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein.
To thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry,
Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of Sabbaoth.
Heaven and earth are full of the majesty of thy glory.
the glorious company of the Apostles praise thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise thee.
The noble army of the Martyrs praise thee.
The holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge thee,
The Father of an infinite Majesty.
Thine honourable, true and only Son; Also the Holy Ghost, the Comforter.
Thou art the King of Glory, thou art the King of Glory, o Christ.
Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.
When thou took'st upon thee to deliver man,
thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb.
When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death, thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the glory of the Father.
We believe that thou shalt come to be our Judge.
We therefore pray thee, help thy servants,
whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with thy Saints in glory everlasting.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the glory of the Father.
Holy, Holy, Holy*

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Pastor Michael McEntyre

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sin, as we forgive those who sin against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

†Hymn of Resurrection 238

Because He Lives

Life of the Church

†Benediction (responsive)

We believe in a God who can astound us—

a God who created the rolling hills of the Ozarks, the stars on a summer night, and the rushing waters of the Missouri River.

We believe in Jesus, whose example changes us—

an example of love for those on the fringes, healing for the sick,
and for the lonely.

We believe that Jesus was abandoned by his friends,
wounded, mocked, and killed by the state.

And in a garden, three days later, we believe that life began again— the stone was rolled back, as death lost its sting.

Ever since that day, we believe the Spirit has been inviting us into an expansive life—

a life not measured by wealth or accolades, but a life full to the brim with joy, overflowing with laughter, saturated in hope,
and decorated with good news.

Death has lost its sting.

We believe, and are set free.

In the name of the Lover, the Beloved, and Love itself,
go in peace, full to the brim. Amen.

Announcements

Visitors

If you are visiting with us online, we are so glad to have you with us! If you would like to receive more information about First Baptist and our ministries, you can fill out a visitor card at fbc-columbia.org/guest or use this QR code.

First Baptist Work Day - Sunday April 24

It's time for some spring cleaning and we need your help!

Tasks will include some light yard work, mulching, planting, a bit of painting, inside organizing and cleaning. Work will begin after the small group hour for those who normally attend the first service. A picnic lunch will be provided following the second service, as we hope more people can join us. Volunteers may want to bring work gloves, old clothes, and a water bottle. We are planning to be done by 2:30 pm. You can sign up at the church or email Pastor Michael at mmcentyre@fbc-columbia.org.

Resurrection Stories- Next Sunday, April 24

Easter is not just a day but a season of the church year where we continue to celebrate the resurrection of Christ. Join us next Sunday as we hear testimonies from two First Baptist folks about when God has brought life out of death in their lives. Death takes on many forms in our lives (physical, emotional, spiritual, or even the death of our dreams). Yet, God often meets us in our darkness and brings new life resurrection.

First Baptist Book Club – April 26

The First Baptist Book Club will meet on the last Tuesday of the month, April 26 at 6 pm to discuss No Cure For Being Human by Kate Bowler. Purchase or check out books on your own and join us in the office commons for snacks and conversation.

Brunch Worship- Sunday, May 1

First Baptist gathers for worship around tables in our Fellowship Hall on the first Sunday of the month. We share a pot-luck meal, sing, reflect on scripture, pray and converse as we build community and worship God.

Colleen Ostercamp Anniversary Celebration

On Sunday, May 1 at 3:00 pm, we will gather in the sanctuary for a musical celebration of Colleen Ostercamp's 30 years as First Baptist's organist.

live.fbc-columbia.org - A New Webcast Experience

We have a new and exciting way to worship online. By using live.fbc-columbia.org, our online community can more closely participate with our in-person attenders. When you join the service using live.fbc-columbia.org, either on our website or directly in your browser, you will notice several elements for worship, including access to the bulletin, a place for notes, an option to offer prayer requests, a handy side bar for looking up Scripture, a place to give, and the schedule for upcoming services. Perhaps the best feature of live.fbc-columbia.org is the ability to chat with other worshippers online during the service without the distractions or online ads experienced with other services. This feature will connect participants with those in person and will be live hosted by one of our online greeters or staff members. First Baptist is excited to offer this new experience for our community of faith and hope you will encourage others to join us for worship.

University Camp - June 25-July 11

After missing the last 2 years, our youth are heading back to University Camp this summer, June 25- July 1! Please contact Michael at mmcentyre@fbc-columbia.org if you have any questions. $50 deposits for camp are due by April 24. Two $100 payments will be due May 15 and June 12. Friends are welcome and encouraged to join us for camp.

ForColumbia Day of Service - April 30

Sign up today at forcolumbia.com/volunteer/

ForColumbia is a city-wide day of service that brings together churches in Columbia to be the hands and feet of Christ in our community. On April 30, First Baptist will join with volunteers from more than 45 partner churches to serve. First Baptist will be taking the lead on 3 projects this year: working at the Reentry Opportunity Center, outside work at our Extra Mile house, and building a wheelchair ramp for a community member. However, your service is not limited to those sites. If you need assistance signing up, email Michael McEntyre at mmcentyre@fbc-columbia.org.
