Silent Meditation

Jesus went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people. So his fame spread throughout all Syria, and they brought to him all the sick, those who were afflicted with various diseases and pains, people possessed by demons or having epilepsy or afflicted with paralysis, and he cured them. And great crowds followed him from Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and from beyond the Jordan.

- Matthew 4:23-25

Tolling of the Bells

The bell tolls represent Jesus' call of the twelve disciples.

†Call to Worship: Matthew 5:1-12 (responsive)

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying: Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

†Invocation (unison)

O God, you have turned our world upside-down through the life and teaching of Jesus. Awaken us now to your blessing. Open our ears that we might hear. Stir our hearts that we might act to glorify you in all things, through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

†Opening Hymn

Blest Are They

Blest are they, the poor in spirit, theirs is the kingdom of God. Blest are they full of sorrow, they shall be consoled.

> Rejoice and be glad! Blessed are You, holy are You! Rejoice and be glad! Yours is the kingdom of God.

Blest are they, the lowly ones, they shall inherit the earth. Blest are they who hunger and thirst, they shall have their fill.

Blest are they who show mercy, mercy shall be theirs. Blest are they, the pure of heart, they shall see God.

Blest are they who seek peace; they are the children of God. Blest are they who suffer in faith, the glory of God is theirs.

Blest are you who suffer hate, all because of me. Rejoice, be glad, Yours is the kingdom; shine for all to see.

†Passing the Peace of Christ

Reading: Based on Matthew 5:21-45

John & Sandy Hall

"You have heard it said, 'You shall not murder,' and 'whoever murders shall be liable to judgment.'

But I say to you that if you are angry with a brother or sister, you will be liable to judgment.

You have heard it said, 'You shall not commit adultery.'

But I say to you that everyone who looks at a person with lust has already committed adultery in the heart.

You have heard it said, 'You shall not swear falsely, but carry out the vows that you have made to the Lord.'

But I say to you, do not swear at all, either by heaven or by the earth. Let your 'Yes' be 'Yes' and your 'No,' 'No.'

You have heard it said, 'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.'

But I say to you, do not resist an evildoer.

If anyone strikes you on the cheek, turn the other cheek also.

You have heard it said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.'

But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be children of your Father in heaven."

The Gospel of our Lord.

Praise be to Christ.

Breathe on Me, Breath of God

Scripture Reading (responsive)

Pastor Michael McEntyre

Matthew 6:1, 5-9a

"Beware of practicing your righteousness before others in order to be seen by them, for then you have no reward from your Father in heaven.

"And whenever you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, so that they may be seen by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. But whenever you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

"When you are praying, do not heap up empty phrases as the gentiles do, for they think that they will be heard because of their many words. Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him. "Pray, then, in this way:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sin, as we forgive those who sin against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Homily Part 1

Pastor Carol McEntyre

Sharing of Our Gifts

Matthew 6:19-21

"Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal, but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also."

Responsive Reading: Matthew 6:25-33

Hugh Emerson

Jesus said: "Do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear.

Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Creator feeds them.

Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life?

And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these.

But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith?"

Scripture Reading

Sherry Wyatt

Matthew 7:1-12

"Do not judge, so that you may not be judged. For the judgment you give will be the judgment you get, and the measure you give will be the measure you get. Why do you see the speck in your neighbor's eye but do not notice the log in your own eye? Or how can you say to your neighbor, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' while the log is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your neighbor's eye.

"Do not give what is holy to dogs, and do not throw your pearls before swine, or they will trample them under foot and turn and maul you.

"Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. Is there anyone among you who, if your child asked for bread, would give a stone? Or if the child asked for a fish, would give a snake? If you, then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask him!

"In everything do to others as you would have them do to you, for this is the Law and the Prophets."

The Gospel of our Lord. Praise be to Christ.

Life of the Church

†Benediction (from the Sermon on the Mount)

You are the salt of the earth and the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. Let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to God. Amen.

New Worship Series - Your Kin-dom Come - Begins Today

Jesus gave his most famous teaching, the Sermon on the Mount, where he addresses subjects like murder, adultery, divorce, prayer, and judging others in Matthew 5-7. His revolutionary ideas in The Sermon are so challenging that some have labeled them aspirational yet unattainable. However, Jesus is known for his practical wisdom. So, the Sermon on the Mount is not wishful thinking but innovative teaching that can deliver us from the vicious cycles we get stuck in. Jesus shows us how to live in ways that bring wholeness and healing to our human relationships. Your Kin-dom Come worship series begins Sunday, August 28. If you want to go deeper, The Discussion/Faith Forum Class that meets in the parlor during the 10:15 am Sunday Morning Small Group Hour will be doing a Bible study in conjunction with the series. You can join them in-person or by Zoom. Contact the church office for the Zoom link.

Brunch Worship - Sunday, Sept. 4, 10:15 am

Psalm 34:8 says, "Taste and see that the LORD is good!" Brunch worship embodies this passage of scripture as we gather around tables to share engaging worship, a scrumptious meal, and meaningful conversation! We invite you to join us for Brunch Worship next Sunday, September 4, at 10:15 am.

As you know, Brunch Worship is a communal endeavor, and you can contribute by bringing a potluck dish to share and signing up to serve when you arrive. There will be no 9:15 or 11:15 am services. Childcare will be available for children from birth through kindergarten. If you cannot attend in person, we invite you to join us through Zoom and share a virtual table with other First Baptist folks.

Parents' Night Out - September 9

PNO is back on September 9 from 5:30-7:30 pm. Step away for a few hours while your kids have a blast. This semester's Parents' Night out is a Popcorn Party! This popcorn-theme game night is jam-packed with games designed to develop Bible Skills and a bit of friendly competition. The Popcorn Party is best suited for readers as many of the activities involve looking through the Bible for clues. Childcare is provided in the nursery for pre-readers and includes popcorn (for those old enough), coloring, and play. The cost is $5.00. Registration is required to ensure adequate staffing.

Celebrating 10 years with Pastor Carol

First Baptist will be taking a group of folx for a day trip to learn and grow together. The early-bird rate for Saturday's workshop is $60 if you register by October 1 and includes Workshop material for Saturday's teaching will be provided, as well as snacks and beverages. In addition to attending the workshop, Pastor Brittany will be leading a book conversation during the month of October to prepare for the weekend. Free Children's Books

The CDC board has been hard at work sorting through the books, toys, and supplies from the Child Development Center's storage rooms. We are so grateful for their work! Many items have made their way to other preschools and parents' day-out programs, giving new life to items that have been in closets for a while. During the Fall Kick-off, parents and caregivers with young children are invited to look through the rooms to see if there are any items they wish to take for their kids. There are lots of books geared toward kids 2-5, preschool-aged toys, and some craft supplies.
