The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness can never extinguish it."

†Call to Worship (responsive)

Beloveds of God, we gather as people of faith, rooted in God's love.

Our presence in this space and in these bodies matter to God.

God knows all of us and calls us children.

God has made room for us.

†Opening Hymn 90

Christ is the World's Light

†Passing the Peace of Christ

Lighting of the Third Advent Candle

Mychel Varner

Today we light the third Advent candle rooted in God's joy.

We want an honest Advent.

You are the author and perfecter of our faith!

Our identity is found in you.

Scandalous God, through Christ you taught us that we might not please everyone,

But you will always provide room for us to be our whole selves.

Help us to offer that same hospitality to others.

Help us to offer that same love to ourselves.

The third candle is lit

Surprise us, O God of joy.

Illuminate our lives.

†Hymn 155

O Little Town of Bethlehem

John 1:1-5, 14, 18

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overtake it.

And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth.

No one has ever seen God. It is the only Son, himself God, who is close to the Father's heart, who has made him known.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Reflecting on the Advent Image

Take a moment to gaze upon the image.

Notice what parts draw you in.

What images or symbols do you see?

What surprises you about Erickson's artwork?

The function of light is to help us see clearer.

How has Jesus helped you see your life more clearly?

Anthem

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel
Chancel Choir & Chancel Bells

arr. Margaret R. Tucker

*O come, O come, Emmanuel
And ransom captive Israel,
That mourns in lonely exile here,
Until the Son of God appear.
Rejoice! Rejoice!
Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.*

*O come, thou Day-spring, come and cheer
Our spirits by thine advent here;
Disperse the gloomy clouds of night,
And death's dark shadows put to flight.*

*O come, thou Wisdom from on high,
And order all things, far and nigh;
To us the path of knowledge show,
And cause us in her ways to go.*

*O come, Desire of nations, bind
All peoples in one heart and mind;
Bid envy, strife and quarrels cease;
And fill the world with heaven's peace.*

Life of the Church

†Benediction

We need an honest Advent

Not one of pomp, but one of grit.

A meaty, down-to-earth,

God-with-us kind of Advent.

One that reminds us that life with you is not just theoretical,

But one that is rooted in your love and that embraces all that we are.

So go forth from this hour trusting that the mystery of Advent and the wonder of God can be encountered here and now.

Worship Notes

Postlude: Good Christian Friends, Rejoice, arr. Gramann, Chancel Bells & Organ

The bell tree part featured in Good Christian Friends, Rejoice played by the Chancel Bells is meant to represent a "zimbelstern". Zimbelsterns are components of some organs that can be turned on by the organist. A Zimbelstern is a set of metal plates in a circular configuration with a small spinning mallet attached to a motor in the center of the plates. The organist sets the speed of the motor and then turns on the zimbelstern. The motor spins the mallet and it hits the metal plates, creating a constant repeated pattern or "ostinato" that plays throughout the piece. Today's piece is a transcription of a Bach organ arrangement of the popular German carol. The bell tree representing the zimbelstern helps to invoke the feel of an organ throughout the piece. Our "zimbelstern" today is none other than our own wonderful organist, Colleen Ostercamp!
