Call to Worship (unison)

Gentle and patient
God, you are calling.

Careful and persistent
God, you are calling.

In grieving and in praise
God, you are calling.

Through dawn and midday
God, you are calling.

Unexpected and planned
God, you are calling.

In a still small voice and in a burning bush
God, you are calling.

Spontaneous and prepared
God, you are calling.

Willing or protected
God, you are calling.

Our God is eager to share with us,
wherever we are in our journey.
May we be diligent to listen.
God, you are calling.

†Processional Hymn 710

We Are Called to Be God's People

(Please turn to face the cross as it enters.)

†Call to Confession

†Prayer of Confession (unison)

*We come before you today, O God, torn among our many responsibilities,
the varied roles we play in our careers and relationships,
and the desires of our hearts.*

*So often we have identified ourselves too closely with our jobs and responsibilities,
forgetting that we are much more in your sight.
Broaden our vision and our self-understanding.*

Forgive us where we have allowed ourselves to compromise our convictions on the altar of convenience.

Open our eyes to the ways we foolishly allow the ends to justify the means.

Forgive us for treating things like treasures and people like things. Make us sensitive to the people with whom we work and live. Call our priorities back into order. Amen.

† Assurance of Pardon

In Jesus Christ, God knows and receives us as we are. Listen, give thanks, and live. Our sins are forgiven. Amen.

† Passing the Peace of Christ

As God has given us peace through Christ, so let us pass the peace of Christ to each other.

Blessing of the Backpacks and the School Year

God of Wisdom, we give you thanks for schools and classrooms and for the teachers and students. We thank you for this new beginning, for new books and new ideas. We thank you for sharpened pencils, pointy crayons, and crisp blank pages waiting to be filled.

Lord, we pray that you will bless these backpacks and the children and youth who carry them as they begin yet another year of school. Give these students peace when they feel nervous, focus when they feel distracted, and energy when they feel tired. Open their minds to the lessons they will learn both in and outside the classroom. Help them to make friends that build one another up, and to be friends to those who need them. Guide them in making good choices as they grow in wisdom and maturity. Be ever-present with them in the classroom, on the school bus and in the cafeteria. May they sense your loving care and we ask, O God, that you protect them each day of this school year.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Lord, bless those in the ministry of teaching. As they embark on a new school year, grant them energy, passion, discipline, and endurance for their daily tasks. Infuse their classrooms with an atmosphere of care and mutual respect. May all their interactions with students be bathed in patience and understanding. Help their lessons to grow students in both knowledge and character. Help us to support the work these teachers do building up our community and our future.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Lord, we give you thanks for the ministry of the Child Development Center here at First Baptist. Lord bless the classrooms and the teachers and the students who fill this building each day. We thank you for all the crayons, paper plates, books, markers and construction paper that will be used to help these children learn. May this be a safe place filled with laughter, learning, joy and play.

Lord, hear our prayer.

All this we ask in the name of Jesus, who as a child in the temple showed us, his longing to learn about you, and as an adult taught by story and example your great love for us. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Exodus 3:1-15

Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed. Then Moses said, "I must turn aside and look at this great sight, and see why the bush is not burned up." When the Lord saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, "Moses, Moses!" And he said, "Here I am." Then he said, "Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground." He said further, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Then the Lord said, "I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them. So come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt." But Moses said to God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?" He said, "I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain."

But Moses said to God, "If I come to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what shall I say to them?" God said to Moses, "I am who I am." He said further, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'I am has sent me to you.'" God also said to Moses, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'The Lord, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you':

The Word of the Lord.

Announcements

Widening Our Welcome

Sunday, September 6 at 10:15 am in the Parlor

Warren Sapp, an American Baptist Pastor and counselor, will be with us to talk about his experience of caring for LGBT persons in his clinical practice and his interpretation of scripture on the LGBT issue.

Tuesday, September 8 at 5:30 pm in the Fellowship Hall (dinner)

We will hear testimonies from First Baptist members, including Sarabeth Rhodes, Anne Bills and Nate Jones, about coming to terms with their sexual orientation and what it has been like to be Christian and gay. Come hear their stories! Please make your dinner reservation ($5/person) with the church office (573-442-1149) by Friday, September 4. Childcare is available; please mention number of children when making your reservation.

Children's Ministry Interim

The Personnel Committee has begun the process of looking for a new Director of Children's Ministry. In the interim church members, Marilyn Zumwalt and Jane Hunter will be overseeing our Children's Ministry. You can help by taking extra time when you see visitors with children. Walk them to the nursery if they have infants or escort them to the 3rd floor where preschool and children's Sunday School meets at 10:15 am. And just as a reminder, children in first grade and above are encouraged to attend worship with their parents.

Night Under the Stars - Coming in September

On September 27, First Baptist will host Night Under the Stars, a fundraising event for Room at the Inn designed to help students better understand the effects of poverty in homelessness in our community. To make this event work, we need adult volunteers to: help prepare food, serve a meal, lead in our poverty simulation, serve as hosts, help with registration, serve as overnight leaders, help with set up and tear down, and more. You can sign up online on the church website or by emailing mmcentyre@fbc-columbia.org. Mark your calendar today to help with this great event.
